

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 120
By Burks

A RESOLUTION to honor Clayton Glenn and express appreciation to him for his exemplary service as Cannon County University of Tennessee Agricultural Extension Service Extension Agent.

WHEREAS, agriculture is a vital part of Tennessee's economy, and persons who play an important role in promoting improvements in agriculture are deserving of special commendation for their tireless efforts; and

WHEREAS, one such notable person is Clayton Glenn, who retired recently after 39 productive years as Cannon County University of Tennessee Agricultural Extension Service Agent and Leader; and

WHEREAS, under his sterling leadership, there have been very informative and interesting annual Farm Schools and Farm Tours, as well as numerous demonstrations, programs and training sessions; and

WHEREAS, a true representative of the "Volunteer State", Mr. Glenn has served admirably as a valued community leader; and

WHEREAS, he has actively served on a large number of committees, helping the Woodbury Lions Club Horse Show become a great success throughout his outstanding tenure as chairman for more than 30 years; and

WHEREAS, he has also worked with extraordinary diligence and dedication as a member of the Cannon County Farm Bureau, as a member of the Board of Directors of the

Boyd Christian School, as a member of the Mid-state Producers and as Chairman of the Rural Development Committee; and

WHEREAS, because of his participation in these worthwhile civic endeavors, Mr. Clayton has received many awards and certificates of appreciation; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Glenn evinces his strong faith and devotion to God as a longtime and very active member of the Woodbury Church of Christ, where he has served as excellent teacher of the adult Bible class and faithful elder for twenty-six years; and

WHEREAS, Glenn's retirement has left a tremendous void in the University of Tennessee Agricultural Extension Service that will be very difficult to fill; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that we pause to specially remember and reflect on his many contributions to Cannon County; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE-HUNDREDTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, That we honor Clayton Glenn and express our deepest appreciation to him for a job well done. We wish him a happy and fulfilling retirement.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
